

Main Menu

This is the main menu that appear at first to the user. This menu allows the user to input his/her selection either to purchase the ticket or to view the seating arrangement

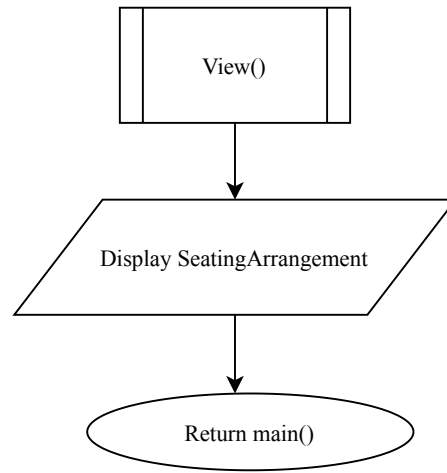

Function Purchase

This is the function that appears when the user enters P in the main menu

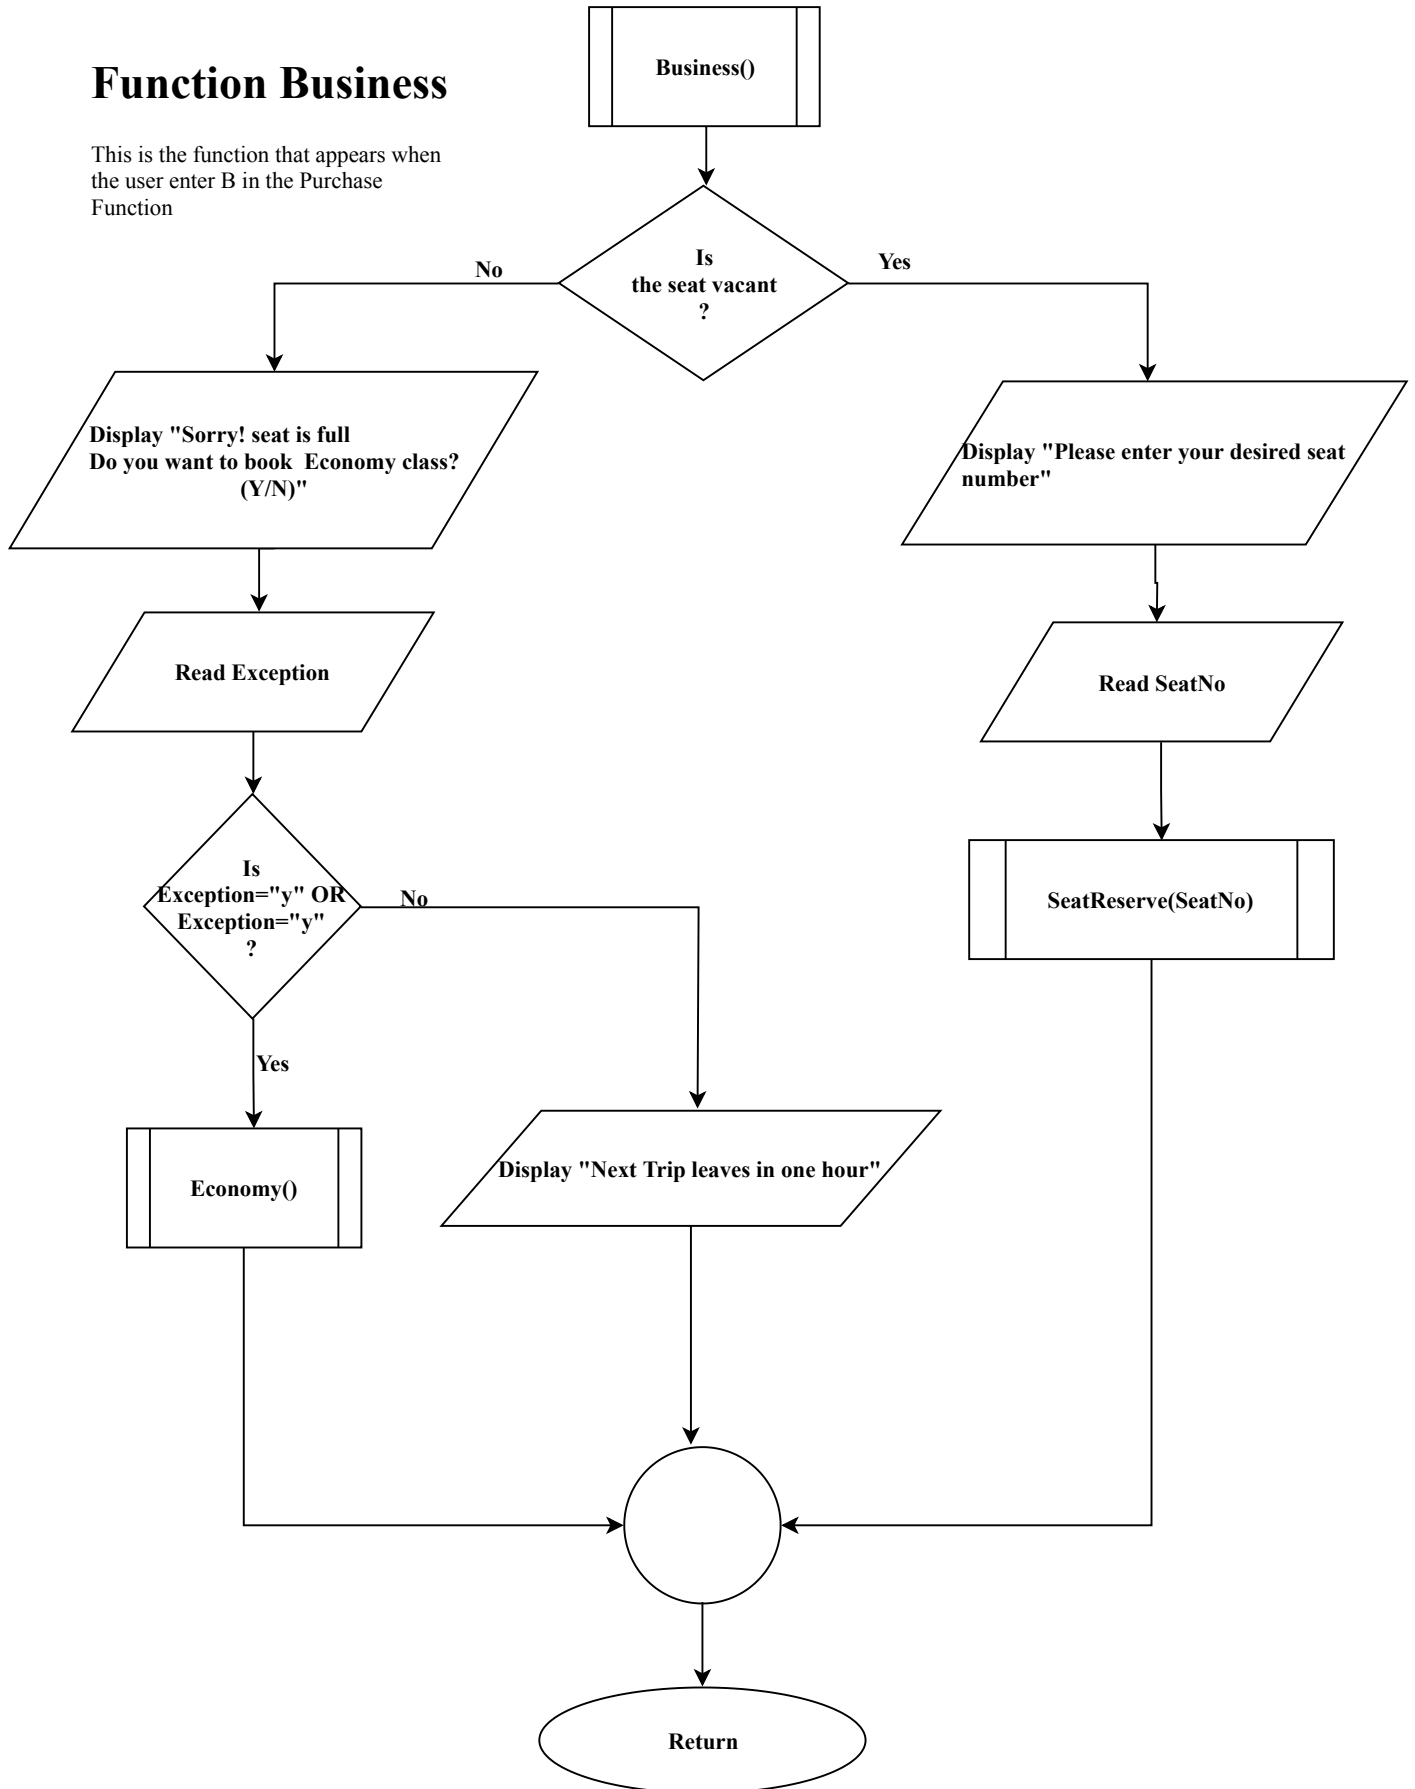

Function View

This is the function when the user wish to view the seating arrangement and enters V in the Main menu. Here the seating arrangement is expected to set in the variable SeatingArrangement.

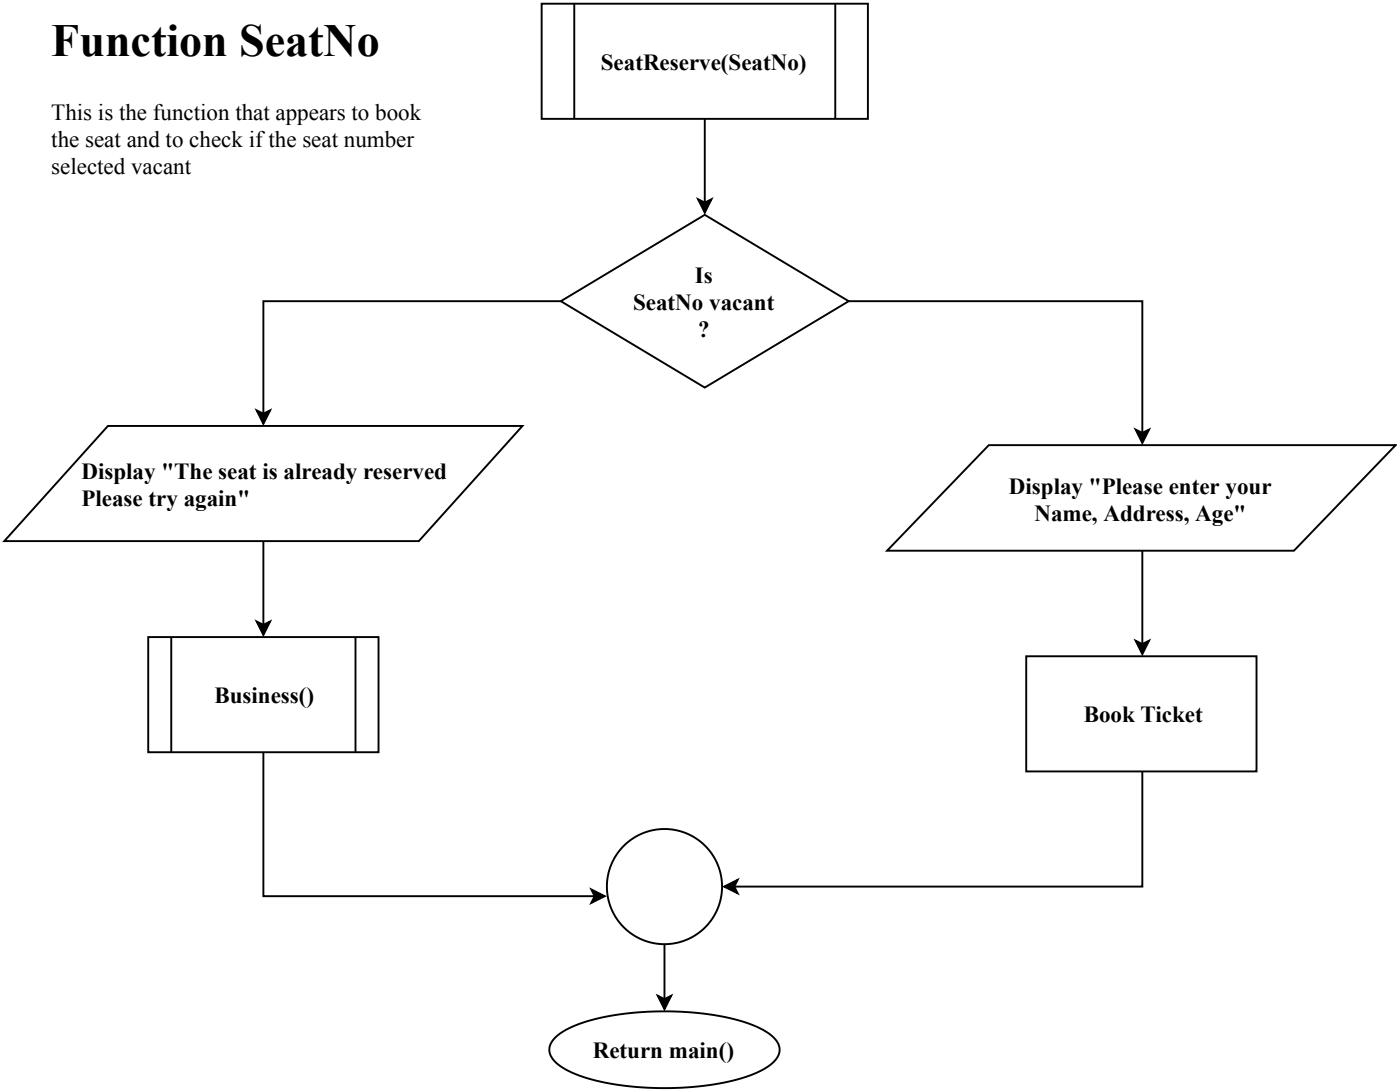

Function Business

This is the function that appears when the user enter B in the Purchase Function

Function SeatNo

This is the function that appears to book the seat and to check if the seat number selected vacant

Function Economy

This is the function that appears when the user enter E in the Purchase Function and this function books the economy class seat

